

AGENCY MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE'S

Build a Better Agency Summit

Become part of the BABA Summit Community!

There are over 100,000 small to mid-sized agencies (1-300 FTEs) in the US alone and for decades, there was no conference that spoke to their unique challenges.

That's why we created the Build A Better Agency Summit - a conference designed specifically for privately held agencies where the owner is still actively involved in the business day to day. We seem to be onto something because since our inaugural conference in 2021, our event has sold out on both the sponsor and attendee side each year.

We are expecting 325 agency owners and leaders to join us for two days of networking, learning, sharing, and as with all AMI events – camaraderie, laughter, and a vibrant connection level that you won't see at other industry events.

Why don't you join us?

The 2024
Build a Better Agency Summit will be
May 20-22, 2024
in downtown Denver.

Event Facts

- 90% of attendees are agency owners. The other 10% are department heads, c-suite level executives, and other agency leaders. Almost all of our attendees are decision makers, with the power to make purchases and create partnerships on behalf of their shop.
- Over 60% of our attendees are repeat attendees from the previous year and 40% haven't missed a single Summit!
- 95% of the agencies represented are based in North America but we will also have a handful of agency owners from Europe, Australia, The Caribbean, South America and Asia who are part of the AMI ecosystem.
- The average size of the agency represented by our attendees is 20-35 FTEs and most have been in business for 10+ years. Some of our attendees will be smaller shops with 10 or so team members and our larger agencies will have over 100 FTEs. Our largest agency in 2022 had 300+ employees.
- There's a wide-range of agency types among our attendees: traditional full-service, PR, digital, media planning and buying, social media, content, SEO/PPC, web dev, and others.
- About AMI: Since 1999, Agency Management Institute has been dedicated to helping agency owners across the globe grow, scale, and evolve their agency. Our "Build a Better Agency" podcast is in the top 5% of all podcasts on iTunes and we serve thousands of agencies every year. We believe that most agency owners are accidental business owners and we focus on helping them run the agency more profitably so it is scaleable, sustainable and should they choose to — sellable in the future.

Who is a great sponsor fit for the Summit?

We look for sponsors who are focusing on serving the small to mid-sized agency market and who understand both the opportunities and obstacles they face. We believe in personal connections and helpfulness and our attendees embrace sponsors who show up in that spirit. We've built the AMI brand around trust and a genuine commitment to helping our clients succeed. The good news is the equity we've built with them transfers to our sponsors as well. When you come to connect and invest the energy in sharing what you've learned, our attendees will welcome you and be eager to learn more.

We love it when our sponsors are on-site and fully participate in the conference. Attend the sessions, hang out for all the meals, and connect with our attendees! You'll find them to be welcoming, curious, and inclusive. The more you engage with the AMI community, the more they'll engage with you.

This is one of the reasons why we won't provide attendee lists at any sponsor level. No one wants to get a cold email from a sponsor they didn't meet or interact with at the conference. But you're welcome to offer giveaways at your booth (if your sponsorship includes one) or gather contact info by actually connecting with people onsite. We think you'll be surprised at how receptive the attendees are to hear about your work, services, or products.

Relationships are born and built upon at the BABA Summit. Sponsors who attend with that goal will leave with much more than they expected.

Hear from some of our 2023 sponsors

Not only is the event expertly planned and the event team top-notch, the speakers and attendees alike are friendly and open to conversations and have a spirit of helpfulness.

We have had a great experience at each event and come away with having the opportunity to interact with current client attendees and meet so many other great people to have conversations with and ask us to follow up with them.

And all of the attendees are our specific target audience and supporting their conference is good for the industry.

Esther Mayer, Workamajig

When Drew told us about his initial plans for a conference focused on small and mid-sized agencies, we were pretty much in and have been there every year. As a sponsor, we were given consistent opportunities to interact with ad agencies (our prospects) in a meaningful way every year and we're coming back for sure in 2024!

Lee McKnight Jr. Vice President Sales-RSW/US

The Build a Better Agency Summit is the only event of its kind and is in a class by itself which is why we invest in our leadership team attending every year, and we're honored to be a sponsor. Our $15,000 sponsorship has generated an 87% return on investment in the 55 days post-Summit. The ROI will increase over the next several months. In my opinion — if you serve agencies — BABA is where you need to be.

Stephen Woessner, CEO of Predictive ROI

This was our first-time sponsoring BABA and we were very pleased with the event. We particularly found the roundtables to be of value and found the format to be very conducive to making and building strategic connections with other attendees.

Zack De Lisa, CFO Advisor of Level 10 CFO

The Build A Better Agency Summit was an incredible experience to get in front of agencies. Not only was the summit a great opportunity to meet and mingle with agency owners and executives but we, as a sponsor, saw that the discussions being had greatly encouraged them to reach out to those that could help accelerate their growth. So we got to be in front of our ideal customer/audience and that audience was primed for us to show how we can be a growth accelerant in their agency life.

We'll be the presenting sponsor for our fourth year in 2024 and beyond!

Brian Gerstner, President of White Label IQ

Sponsoring the Build a Better Agency Summit is the best money I spend all year. This is the only event I've found that's truly dedicated to helping small- to mid-sized agencies succeed. No other conference even comes close — including the biggest ones. If you want to truly connect with agency leaders and are willing to be generous and helpful during the event and after, this is the show for you."

Susan Baier, Owner of Audience Audit

In my experience there are no other conferences that attract such a high quality of agency owners and leaders as the BABA Summit has done for the past 3 years. I always learn something new and end up with lots of great new relationships as a result of our sponsorship.

Doug Kauffman, Owner of Kauffman CPA
